

If an individual customer holds several policies with ICICI Lombard, 'My Insurance Account' provides an easy access through a single interface as the policies can be easily managed online. Customers can view, print, buy new policies, renew and extend policies from one single account. It gives customer the convenience of 24x7 accessibility and paperless transactions. Multiple payment options are available to the customers such as internet banking, credit card, debit card and cash card. The Policy PDF (a digitally signed valid legal softcopy) is made available to the customer in the 'My Account' section of the online account. Another benefit that a customer enjoys is that he does not have to provide the same information for every product he buys, as information is directly taken from 'My Insurance Account'.

Creating 'My Insurance Account' is a simple two-step process. Users can visit the company's official website (www.icicilombard.com) and click-click on the 'Create My Insurance Account' link. The account can be created after filling out a few personal details. To add existing policies, the policy holders can click on the 'Search Your Policy' link within 'My Insurance Account' and select the product and enter its details to search the policy.

Key Features

1. Policies accessible anytime, anywhere
2. All the purchased policies stored in one centralized location
3. One can view, print, buy, renew, search and tag all existing policies easily online from One single account
